OBJECTIVE

Our objective is to provide nonmedical services to your loved one while allowing them to maintain their pride and dignity. It is to allow family members a moment to tend to their daily routines, giving them the peace of mind that their loved one is being properly cared for.

*A thorough background check will be (is) obtained on each employee prior to their employment with this agency.

TESTIMONY

“We needed a sitter for Mike’s mom. Fortunately, we were able to find someone who was loving and lovely to stay with her...through the recommendation of friends. The sitter and my mother-in-law, Bobbye, sang hymn after hymn after hymn together. It was a sad time for us, but Bobbye looked forward to her singing friend coming over. All that to say, we felt the sitters were a true Gift from God in a time of need...Angels really. I know your new endeavor will bless many lives and provide grace, peace, and love during times when families are stressed and scared. Thank you for this new branch of your ministry. And count on recommendations from me when I get the chance.”
